

Have a housing law issue?

Is communication difficult?

Connecting Ottawa can help connect you with services.

Do any of the following apply to your situation?

- “I’m behind on my rent and my landlord said I have to move out.”
- “My heat isn’t working properly and my landlord hasn’t fixed it.”
- “Someone broke into my apartment and my landlord said I have to fix the window myself.”
- “My apartment has bed bugs and my landlord said he doesn’t have the money to pay for an exterminator.”
- “I’ve complained about my neighbour’s noise but my landlord says he/she can’t do anything about it.”
- “My rent has gone up since I first moved in but I can’t afford to pay more.”

CONTACT

211 Ontario

211ontario.ca
Dial 2-1-1

Clinique juridique francophone de l'Est d'Ottawa

cscvanier.com/fr/juridique
613-744-2892

Community Legal Services of Ottawa Downtown Office

clsoc.ca
613-241-7008

JusticeNet

justicenet.ca/professions
1-866-919-3219

Landlord's Self Help Centre

landlordselfhelp.com
1-800-730-3218

Law Society Referral Service

lsrs.info
1-855-947-5255

University of Ottawa Community Legal Clinic

commonlaw.uottawa.ca/community-legal-clinic/
613-562-5600

Ottawa Legal Information Centre

legalinfocentre.ca
613-842-7462

Community Legal Services of Ottawa South Office

socls.org
613-733-0140

Community Legal Services of Ottawa West Office

westendlegal.ca
613-596-1641

Action Housing/Action logement

action-logement.ca
613-562-8219

Advocacy Centre for Tenants Ontario (ACTO)

acto.ca
1-866-245-4182

Housing Help

housinghelp.on.ca
613-563-4532

Connecting Ottawa aims to improve access to justice for people who are not proficient in English or French or who face communication challenges as the result of a disability, condition or sensory impairment.

Connecting Ottawa

Effective communication
Accessible justice

The Law
Foundation of Ontario

