

Connecting Ottawa and CLEO present

(in-person)
Skills development workshop day
for front-line workers:

Tuesday, February 13, 2024
219 Argyle Avenue (space compliments of CCI)

Attend one or both!

Registration is required. Book now as space is limited

Register at: <https://shorturl.at/cefX3>

9:30 a.m. - noon

Building legal help skills and navigating CLEO's Step to Justice resources

with Kristin Marshall, CLEO

This interactive training discusses how to find legal information that:

- helps you identify legal aspects to clients' problems
- explains how to find accurate and reliable legal information
- includes resources to share with clients
- discusses when you can offer legal help
- shows where you can refer clients for representation and advice

Using practical scenarios and activities, participants will also learn how to navigate Steps to Justice to respond to common legal questions.

1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Back to basics: What I need to know if my client is not a Canadian citizen

with Nadine Edirmanasinghe, CLSO

This session provides an overview of the various immigration statuses in Canada, how to identify them, and rights these individuals maybe entitled to, including:

- a refugee claimant
- protected person
- permanent resident
- temporary resident
- person with no status
- individuals being sponsored for permanent residence
- applicant for permanent residence on humanitarian and compassionate grounds.

Light snacks will be provided at each session. Lunch will not be provided.

Space is limited. Register today

Registration link: <https://shorturl.at/cefX3>

This workshop day is made possible by the generous donation of the Law Foundation of Ontario

For more information email: info@connectingottawa.com